by Mrs. R. W. Lennard, president of the Ladies' Baptist Workers.

James E. Andrews spent several days in Jacksonville the first of the week, returning to Fort Pierce yesterday.

Fanny Baker, of Stuart, arrived in town Tuesday, and will make her home with Mrs. A. M. Sample for summer.

It has been decided to change the date of Miss Conkling's concert from Saturday, May 18, to Friday the 17th.

Prof. J. R. Pomeroy, of Stuart, spent Saturday in town meeting his many friends, and transacting business before the county officers.

Frank Newton have just returned from week's visit to Key West where they attended the District Conference of ev. S. W. Lawler, presiding elder.
T. Robinson will return Saturday night, he having taken on extra trip over to Havana.

J. W. Acton, manager of the Delray Canning Co., was in town Wednesday.
Mr. Acton informed THE TRIBUNE representative that the canning factory is in operation, and that he would be in position to use all of the unsalable sizes of pineapples during the season. This will be of great benefit to our growers, the unfavorable season will cause many pineapples to be small.

Capt. W. J. Tucker has been appointed by Indian River Camp No. 47, C. V. of Titusville, as delegate to the reunion and convention of the United Confederate Veterans at Richmond, Va., May 30th to June 3. Capt.
Tucker will attend, and expects to meet his daughter, Mrs. A. R. Anthony, here, as she is a delegate from a New York chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

A young man, Mr. Gray, was killed recently in Fort Pierce by the accidental discharge of a rifle he was handling.
He was a bright energetic man and a good workman. He came from Massachusetts last year and had built a home at yet quite paid for. By the active efforts of Mrs. C. T. McCarty the debt was cleared and donation of funeral and other expenses were added. The wife and children went north to their friends this week. —Melbourne Times.

Contractor and Mrs. H. I. Klopp and daughter expect to leave Sunday for Jacksonville, where they will make their future home. Mr. Klopp will open an architect and builder's office in Jacksonville, and feels assured that he will succeed in securing business within the city limits so that he will not be obliged to be separated from his family as he has been so much of his time here. Mr. Klopp is very proficient in his line, and will no doubt succeed wherever he goes. Fort Pierce regrets to lose this estimable family, who have made their home here for several years.

Durkee & Goodwin house painters.

F. Charles Gifford and W. D. Davis, of Vero, were in town Tuesday evening.

at at Miss Conkling's concert on Friday May 17.

Mrs. Sidney E. Gray and children left last Thursday for their former home in Stockbridge, Vt.

Wake up Mr. Barnacle, and buy a whistle and light from Sneden before the inspector gets you.

Mrs. W. B. Cross is now in charge of the telephone central for the Indian River Telephone company.

If it hurts you to laugh you had better not go to hear Backus on Friday evening, May 17, at the concert.

R. D. Reams and family, of Narrows have moved to Fort Pierce. Mr. Reams is employed in the railroad shops.

the University of Florida, Gainesville, on May 25th we notice the name of A.
R. Neilson, of White City. Mr. Neilson has been assigned to give the salutatory address at the opening of the graduating exercises. He graduates with the degree of bachelor of science.

We failed to mention the return of Dr. C. P. Platts last week. His many friends are much pleased to see him so much improved in health, and hope the improvement will be permanent. He attended to his duties before the school board at the meeting the first of the week.

A. B. Michael, T. J. Carl, T. M. Jones, Geo. W. Beal, J. T. Davis and J. E.
Dodge, were a delegation from Waba-so who were in town Wednesday. The first three came down to purchase the Buxton mules advertised in THE TRI-BUNE last week, but were too late as a Jensen party had already secured them.

The City Council has passed a resolution requiring all property owners to clean up their premises, and have instructed the marshal to see that it is done. If all of our property owners will place the grounds surrounding their homes in the condition that Mr. Cobb has put the place occupied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Watts, Fort Pierce would soon have the reputation of being the prettiest town in Florida.

Geo. G. Newcomb was shot and killed in Zapf's saloon, West Palm Beach, Wednesday afternoon, by Thomas W.
Terry, of New York, who had come ashore at Palm Beach from a lumber steamer bound from South America to steamer conflict as to who New York. Reports conflict as to who was the aggressor, but both were under the influence of liquor. Nothing is known of Terry, further than that he has wealthy relatives in New York.
Newcomb was a popular man, both in Miami and West Palm Beach, and has many relatives in Dade county.

"POSITIVE TENSION SHEARS"

Agents Wanted
Exclusive TerritoryAre Warranted to be genuine Wardlow Laid steel, made by skilled workmen in the largest shear factory in the world.Unconditionally Fully Guaranteed

- A Screw that holds shears together.
B Set screw operating tension.
C Disc of composition metal which acts as false die.
D Hole counter-sunk in side of shear to receive disc C.
E Hole the screw bolt goes through.

The Shear with "Tension" attached as it appears when completed. Note simplicity, also the fact that no useless springs or cumbersome materials are used which add weight and interfere with operation of shears.

How the Tension Works:
By referring to the illustration you will see that right back of the screw bolt that holds the blades together, is a small thumb screw bearing directly upon a disc of composition metal.
As the set screw is tightened, blades are forced together, and a clean cut clear to the end of the blade is made possible.
